

You know this from before

At the Transfiguration Jesus revealed his divine glory.

God spoke and said Jesus is his son, and he is pleased with him.

The Our Father is the perfect prayer given to us by Jesus himself.

1 May your name be kept holy.

2 May your Kingdom come soon.

3 May your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

4 Give us today the food we need,

5 and forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us.

6 And don't let us yield to temptation,

7 but rescue us from the evil one.

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Mathew 5:3-12

Year 6 Branch Three: Galilee to Jerusalem

God inspired the authors of Sacred Scripture, and scripture is understood literally and spiritually.

Sacraments are meeting points with God.

Jesus raises Lazarus

The sacraments engage all the senses, not just intellect and are earthly signs of the presence of God, especially in the Eucharist.

The purpose of sacraments is to help people grow more like

Jesus, and through him become children of God.

Through these, Catholics experience the 'healing, forgiving, nourishing, strengthening, presence of God that enables them to love in turn'

The Church has seven sacraments. The sacraments of initiation are baptism, confirmation and Eucharist. The sacraments of healing are penance and anointing of the sick. The sacraments in service to Holy Communion are marriage and Holy Orders.
