Resurrection Sunday: John 20:1-29

On the cross, He took on the guilt and pain of the whole world to bring the world back home to God's perfect love.

In John's Gospel, Jesus gifts the disciples

Just as God breathed life into Adam,

Jesus breathed new life into his disciples.

The resurrection is the work of the Holy Trinity.

with the Holy Spirit.

St John's Gospel tells us that recognising Jesus

as the Messiah is a choice.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen. Classically

All Christians are called to bear witness to the Resurrection by the example of their new life in baptism, strengthened by the Holy Spirit in confirmation.

St Margaret Mary Alacoque, who bore witness to Christ through her devotion to the Sacred Heart.

Only the Holy Spirit has the power to make the changes God wants to make in our lives.

Jesus was buried in a tomb, and on the 3rd day, some women arrived and were shocked to find the tomb empty. Two angels appeared to explain that Jesus had risen from the dead.

A martyr is someone who has died rather than give up their faith.

The first martyr

is St Stephen.

St Oscar Romero, who suffered persecution and death for speaking out against oppression.
